

VISIT...

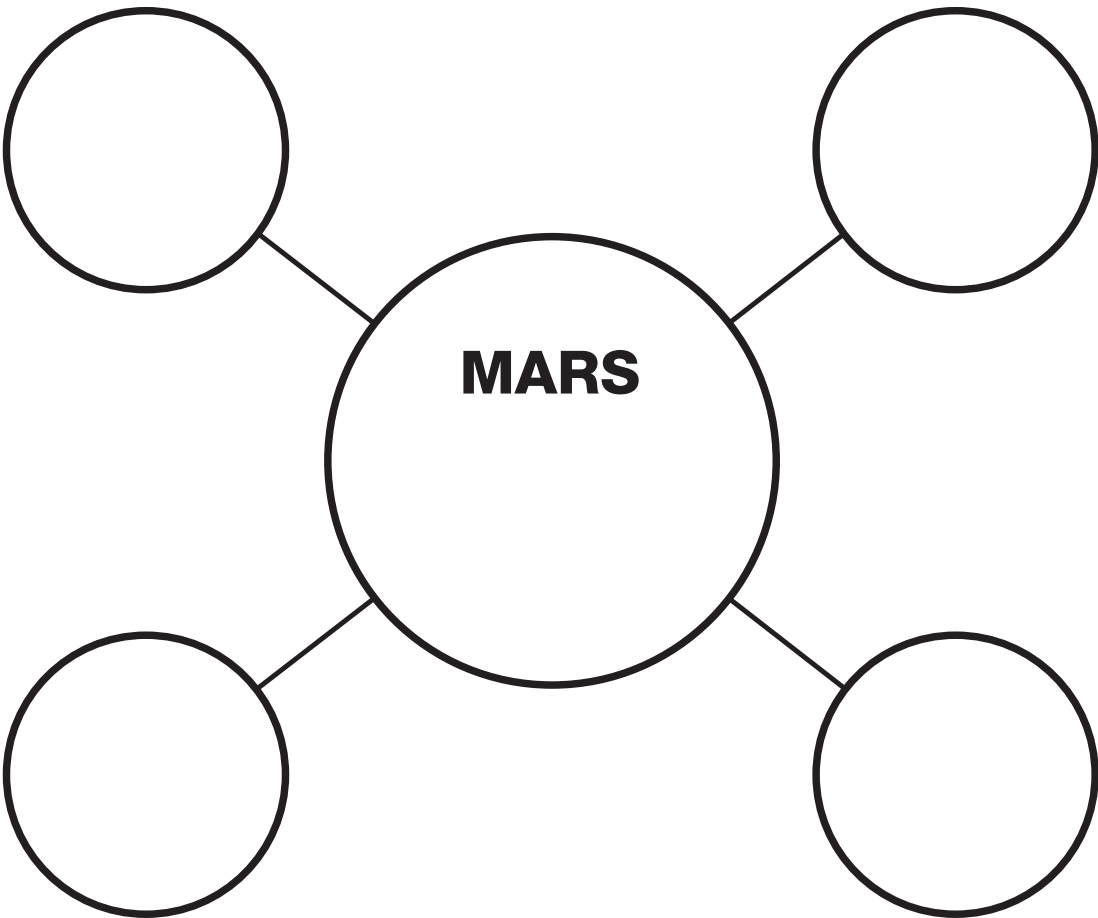

LANZAROTE
Caliente.COM

Name _____

Draw Conclusions

Draw conclusions is to use what you know about whatever you’re reading to make decisions about facts and details in the text.

Directions Create a concept map and record the information you learned about Mars. Then use those facts and details to write a conclusion about Mars and if you think humans might someday live on another planet, such as Mars.

My Conclusions about Life on Mars

Name _____

Vocabulary

Directions Choose the word in the box that best fits the definition.
Write the word on the line.

Check the Words You Know

___carbon	___environments	___microscopic	___organisms
___radiation	___rilles	___stumbled	___trenches

1. _____ Long, straight ditches in the surface of a planet
2. _____ Tripped, or walked unsteadily
3. _____ Living plants or animals, including bacteria
4. _____ A chemical element found in all plants and animals
5. _____ The surroundings; the natural world of the land, sea, and air
6. _____ Particles sent out from a radioactive substance
7. _____ Too small to be seen without a microscope
8. _____ Straight, narrow ditches on Earth

Directions Choose the word from the box that best fits each sentence.
Write the word on the line.

9. As the alien chased me across the surface of the planet, I _____ and fell.
10. Pictures of the surface of Mars show _____ and canyons.
11. Scientists study _____ found deep beneath the surface of the earth.
12. If _____ is found, it may mean there was once life on Mars.
13. My room and my parents' room are two completely different _____.
14. The surface of Mars gives off harmful _____.